Republican State Ticket. The Republican State Convention ated the Ticket which lace at the head of our columns.

The Platform is as follows: The Republican Union Party of Ohio, in seven years of $1,180. The probability is that an Association will run out in a much shorter time than seven years, and if so the profits to all shareholders are greater.

It is expected that the Association will dispose of its thousand shares by will dispose of its thousand shares by tion could not have made a better non nation for Governor, Gen. Hayes' character as a private citizen and his record as a Soldier and a Congressman

The whole Ticket is an admiral tried and found faithful to every duty and every trust reposed in them.

The Platform is short, comprehe sive and of genuine stuff; and will com mend itself to the good sense and patriotism of the people of the great State of Ohio not less for the intrinsic excellence of its principles, than for the boldness and timeliness of their eaunci- invited to compete for the prizes.

The Contract System.

The Contract System.

Now that Frement is living under a city charter, the old system of giving out jobs to political or personal favorites ought to give place to the more just and economical plan of letting work by contract to the lowest responsible bidder whenever it is practicable. The adoption of this system would save the adoption the merchants that they will reach the country.
